

ORGALIME General Assembly Public Session
EU and UK industry - The future
Opportunities and challenges for the electrical and mechanical industry

8th June 2017 14.15pm-18.15pm
Beaumont Estate, Burfield Rd, Old Windsor SL4 2JJ

14.00 – 14.50    Networking & Registration

15.00            Dr Howard Porter, Chairman ORGALIME

Welcomes members and guests, and outlines to seminar program

Session 1: The future role of the UK in the EU –chaired by Steven Barr, Managing Director, Hennik Edge, Manager of The Manufacturer Collaboratory

15.05            Brexit - the view from Brussels – Mark Watts, Partner IDA Group, Brussels

15.20            The German perspective Thilo Brodtmann, CEO VDMA, Germany

15.35            The French perspective Philippe Contet, CEO FIM France

15.50            Responses from EURIS company members:

- David Smith, Specac
- Richard Little, Jenton International
- Keith Ritchie, Titon

16.10            The role of industry representation 2017-2019 - Standards and Innovation

- Scott Steedman – Director of Standards BSI
- David Dossett - Board member CENELEC
- Rodney Turtle – Board member, IEC
- Prof Peter Ball – York University

16.40            Break

Session 2: The UK and EU industrial strategies

- 17.00      The UK industrial strategy and climate change– the role of industry - BEAMA Vice president – Patrick Caiger-Smith
- 17.15      European industry needs a European industrial strategy -Tomas Hedenborg, President of Orgalime.
- 17.30      Responses from:
- Martin Walder, VP Industry, Schneider and EAMA Chairman
  - Mark Ridgway OBE – CEO Group Rhodes
  - Phil New, CEO Energy Systems Catapult
  - Dr David Branson, Nottingham University
- 18.15      Conclusion – Orgalime Chair – Dr Howard Porter

Evening Reception and Dinner - De Vere Beaumont Estate

- 19.00-20.00      Drinks Reception - Sponsored by GEO
- 20.00 -23.30      Dinner and Entertainment