

EURIS update – wc. 09.12.18

Next EURIS Members Meeting

- Tuesday 18th December 11am – 3pm at the BEAMA/GAMBICA offices - Rotherwick House, 3 Thomas More Street, London, E1W1YZ
- Officials from DIT have expressed interest in attending this meeting to start a discussion with EURIS members about future non-EU trade. BEIS officials will also be attending the meeting. DExEU are unable to make this meeting.
- Nick Mellor, Managing Director of the Lift and Escalator Industry Association (LEIA) will be attending the meeting – the LEIA are interested in EURIS membership.

UK Government Department news

- HMRC have published details of the two grants available to help businesses complete customs declarations, in preparation for the UK leaving the EU https://www.gov.uk/guidance/grants-for-businesses-that-complete-customs-declarations?utm_source=11068895-5a29-45ee-8644-178a1a72ebe7&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=govuk-notifications&utm_content=immediate
- The Health and Safety Executive has published additional REACH EU Exit guidance http://www.hse.gov.uk/brexit/brexit-chemical-regulation.htm?utm_source=Twitter&utm_medium=social&utm_campaign=EU-Exit&utm_content=Defra

EURIS Sector Panel

- The next EURIS Sector Panel meeting will be sometime between late January - mid February.

EURIS meeting with Deputy Permanent Representative to the EU

- EURIS Chair, Dr Howard Porter, has meetings in Brussels with Katrina Williams, the Deputy Permanent Representative and the CBI's Brussels office on 11th December.

UKTPO report

- UKTPO's report for EURIS will be launched in January – the date for the launch will be confirmed once the outcome and consequences of tomorrow's vote are clearer.

Brexit in the UK

- The House of Lords commences the concluding day of its three-day debate on the Brexit deal today (with a non-binding vote tonight), while at 3.30pm today the Commons begins day four of its big five-day debate.